— What you'll like about the neighbourhood —

Jean-Talon: a market, a neighbourhood

When you hear Jean-Talon, you immediately think of the largest open-air market in North America. You can do your groceries there, or simply admire the beautiful gems from our local farms.

Just steps away, the coffee shops and affordable restaurants of Little Italy let you enjoy the charms of Europe without having to travel very far.

The Villeray neighbourhood offers community activities that anyone can take part in. Centre Lajeunesse and Patro Le Prevost, both a short walk from the residence, offer language courses, sports and many other leisure activities.

Résidence Alfredo-Gagliardi is just above the Jean-Talon metro station, one of the central transit hubs in Montréal. No matter where you are heading, you'll be there in 15 minutes, including downtown. This is urban accessibility at its finest.
