Dollard-des-Ormeaux: at the crossroads of the West Island

Dollard-des-Ormeaux can be accessed from anywhere in Montreal. Located where highways 13 and 40 meet, it is the Island's western hub.

Its many neighbourhoods are home to retired couples and young families alike, all drawn by the quality of suburban life.

Nature lovers are enchanted by the famous Centennial Park, one of the city's 33 parks. Green space as far as the eye can see and a large artificial lake make outdoor walks all the more enjoyable.

The residence is a few minutes from a very convenient shopping centre. Galeries des Sources has many well-known shops. Service is provided in both English and French.

Its proximity to the city, large open spaces and wide range of services make "DDO" a happy place to live.
