— What you'll like about the neighbourhood —

Mile End: authentically Montreal

In the heart of Mile-End, one of Montreal's most vibrant neighbourhoods, you will find the cozy restaurant Chez Claudette, the legendary Saint-Viateur Bagel, Le Champ des possibles, Laurier Street, and more....

Bilingual, multicultural, full of tradition and open to the world, Mile-End is one of the liveliest places to live in Montreal. International video game companies share their block with small family grocery stores, where hipsters mingle with the older generation. It is an extraordinary place to discover various cuisines, take an art class or simply watch the world go by from a coffee shop. It is often compared to the most inspiring neighbourhoods of Barcelona, San Francisco and Tokyo.

Located in a quiet area, Résidence Le Mile-End is just a quick walk away from Fairmount, Saint-Viateur and Saint-Laurent streets.
