Rosemont: a little slice of the world

The image of a perfect neighbourhood that we get when we think of Montreal comes to life in Rosemont.

The famous duplexes with wrought iron stairs, alleys where you can still play hockey and little local coffee shops make Rosemont a typical postcard shot of Montréal.

Its inhabitants form a vast number of international communities. From Little Belgium to Little Italy, you will find influences from people who shaped our city. You will never get tired of trying affordable good eats prepared the traditional way. Neighbourhood life happens at the skating rink, on a bench at Beaubien Park and in good company at the famous movie theatre of the same name.

All these places and other services are near Résidence Saint-Eugène. Living in Rosemont is a bit like enjoying a little slice of the world.
